Anti-Bullying Policy

Bullying is defined as one or more people excluding, teasing, taunting, gossiping, hitting, kicking, or putting down another person with the intent to hurt another. Bullying happens when a person or group of people wish to exert power over another and use their power to get their own way, at the expense of someone else. Bullying can also happen through the internet: via emails, text messaging, instant messaging, and even other, less direct methods. Cyber bullying can also lead to persons being hurt during or between camp season and can be especially hurtful when the target is cruelly treated or excluded.

At Lower Southampton Township Recreation Day Camps bullying will not be tolerated, and we hold a firm policy against all manner of bullying. Our philosophy is based on our mission statement which ensures that every camper has the opportunity to create friendships, to experience diversity, and to develop new interests. We work together as a team to ensure that campers gain self-confidence, make new friends, and go home with great memories.

Unfortunately, people who are bullied are denied the chance to take full advantage of their camp experience. Our leadership addresses all incidents of bullying seriously and trains staff to promote communication with their staff and their camps so everyone can be comfortable with alerting the necessary parties to any problems during their camp season. Every person has the right to expect to have the best possible experience at camp, and we can ensure that all campers and staff have a great summer by working together as a team to identify and manage bullying.

We will fully investigate all cases of alleged bullying, but please keep in mind that interpersonal problems are not always bullying and that sometimes incidences are not resolved according to each person's direct wishes, but rather to everyone's benefit, which often requires compromise and teamwork.

As a parent or guardian, I agree to partner with Lower Southampton Township camps in the discipline of my child. I agree to uphold and support the disciplinary code.
